

An artistic illustration of a woman with long, wavy brown hair and a young child with short brown hair, both wearing blue long-sleeved shirts. They are shown from the back, looking up at a vast, colorful night sky. The sky is filled with numerous stars of varying sizes and a large, prominent spiral galaxy with a bright yellow and orange core and swirling blue and purple arms. The overall mood is peaceful and awe-inspiring.

For Parents of Cosmic Kids

A soul-nourishing collection of 7 messages for the guardians of awakened children.

*“You are not raising ordinary humans.
You are remembering how to parent the stars.”*

---

Letter 1: You Were Chosen

Dearest One,

You were not assigned this role — you were chosen. Long before your child arrived in your arms, they chose you for your heart, your frequency, your courage to awaken.

They knew your love would be strong enough to carry their light into this world.

Even when you doubt yourself, they do not. They remember who you are.

You are enough.

You always have been.

---

Letter 2: Your Child is Not Too Much

Dearest One,

Your child may feel like fire and starlight wrapped in skin.

They see, feel, and know more than they can say.

Their energy may stretch the boundaries of what’s considered “normal” — and that’s exactly the point. They came to expand what is possible.

To awaken truth.

To recalibrate Earth.

Hold space.

Let them unfold.

You are not here to tame them — you are here to see them.

Letter 3: You Are Not Alone

Dearest One,

It can feel like you’re doing this all by yourself. But you are surrounded — always — by teams of light, by ancestors and guides, and by other parents walking the same path.

Though the road may be quieter and less travelled, you are not alone.
Every moment you hold love instead of control, every time you choose presence over pressure, you send ripples through the grid.

We feel you.
We walk beside you.

Letter 4: *There is No Right Way

Dearest One,

You are not failing.
You are learning a new language — the soul-language of your child.
There is no rulebook, no map — because this path has never been walked quite like this before. Trust your unique way. Let intuition be your guide. Let your love be your compass.

It's not about getting it "right."
It's about staying close to what's real.

---

Letter 5: *Remember the Magic

Dearest One,

In the middle of the tired days and tangled toys, remember: this is magic.
The giggle that sparks out of nowhere.
The way their eyes light up at sunlight through trees.
The tiny hand wrapped around your finger.

Your life is not on pause while you parent — this is your sacred life.
Let it be filled with wonder, too.

Letter 6: *You Are Raising a Portal

Dearest One,

Your child is a stargate — a living bridge between realms.
They are here to help birth the new timelines of Earth through their joy, their truth, their frequency. You do not have to mould them. Simply hold them, witness them, and remind them who they are when the world forgets.

And when you forget — let them remind you, too.

Letter 7: *Thank You

Dearest One,

Thank you for showing up.

Thank you for loving through the noise.

Thank you for being willing to remember what humanity has forgotten.

The work you do in your living room, in your arms,
in your heart — it ripples through galaxies.

We see you.

We honour you.

We love you.
